

Life is a gift, a present. The future is a goal of the Life. And hu manity has a choice how to reach this goal based upon our needs.

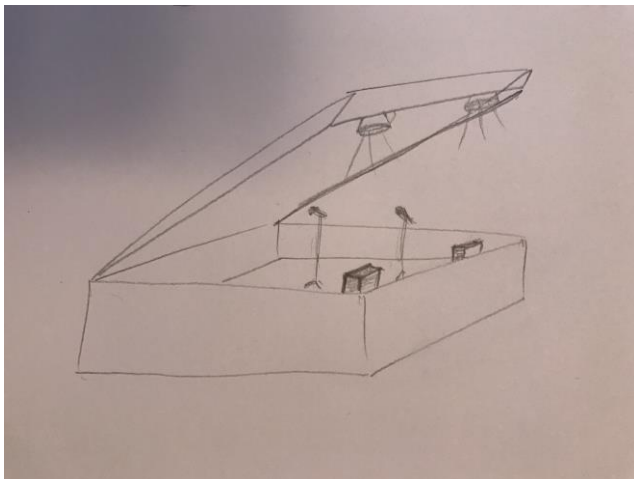

Some of them are basic - food. So it should be restaurant with healty food, because we eat to live and not live to eat.

Entertainment. So it should be stage (in a shape of the gift's box) that will be open to different genres and performers of different levels.

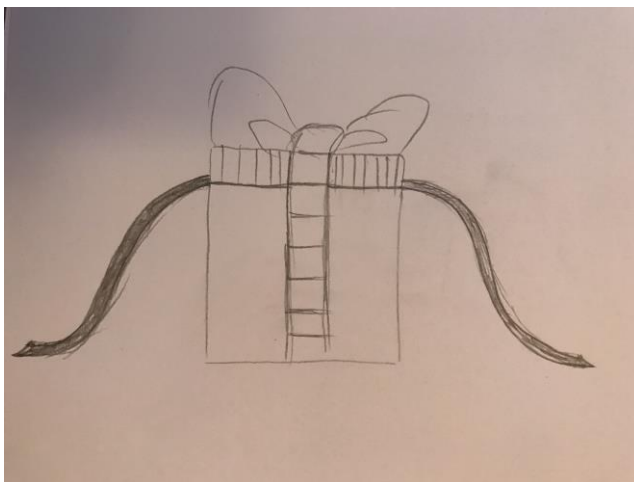

Library. Food for brain. To build the future we need to remember the past. So it should be a rich collection of the best books in variety of languages, records, movies.

The Garden under the glass. To remind the meaning of the Nature in our life. With open space fpor different exhibitions of arts, workshops and place for discussion of modern problems and their solutions.

Playground for children in a shape of gift's boxes, because children are our future.

stage

slide on the playground